Kevin, as we promised you earlier, here are the Tribal comments on the Remedial Design Workplan. You told us that they were to be turned in no later than October 25, 2013. As requested, here are the Tribes comments. As you can tell from the comments, the Tribes are offended by the fact that FMC continues to neglect accurately identifying the Shoshone Bannock Tribes or even documenting the fact that they are located within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Hall Reservation.

These are the homelands that tribal members must remain living within in. The Treaty specifically states that tribal members must live on the reservation in order to receive their treaty rights of hunting, fishing, and gathering on unoccupied federal lands. Tribes have always looked at taking care of their natural resources so future generations may be able to continue to live on what's left of our homelands.
